Third Annual Exhibition Flagship Art Club

The Mayor Of Eastleigh, Councillor Des Scott addressing Flagship Art Club artists at their Private View

Flagship Art Club members were pleased to welcome the Mayor of Eastleigh and his wife to their third annual exhibition at Centenary Hall. The event went well with many friends and family members coming along to support our artists. Their work was well received and several pictures sold.

There was also a chance to see a photographic exhibition of the making of our ZEBRA "Zebra Crossing" from the bare white cast through to the finished product displayed in the summer sunshine at Town Quay Park. Members of the Flagship Art Club ran workshops for visitors to produce decorated cards and envelopes using marbling oils. People from Launch pad came along to try out these techniques.

The Zebra Café, run by Will and Michelle Wheeler, did a brisk trade in home made cakes and hot drinks. Thanks to everyone who baked for us. Kate O'Connell ran a wonderful art market selling a range of affordable but unique artistic gifts ranging from felted soaps to knitted scarves and fused glass bowls, the work of six local artists.

CAROLINE RACKHAM, our Art tutor, at the Flagship Art Club has her own exhibition at Harbour Lights Picture House in Ocean Village from November 25. If you are interested in her work please go along to see her exhibition and maybe take in a film at the same time!

ROBIN HOOD

MAYFLOWER PANTO TRAIL PROJECT

We have started our annual project with the Mayflower Theatre. Our first workshop of drama and art took place on November 11 and was well attended.

Participants who complete all three workshops will also be invited to see the Trail at Hilliers in December and attend a performance of the Panto Robin Hood, together in January. Happy Days!
